TASTING NOTES

Awarded 98 Points by Luca Maroni - Leading Italian Wine Critic

If there's one wine that proves just how much our customers love a rich, smooth Italian red, it's this! Cantina del Coppiere Primitivo has become our number one selling red wine, and frankly, we're not surprised. From the sun drenched vineyards of Puglia in Southern Italy, this is the sort of generous, comforting red that wins people over from the very first glass.

Beautifully presented in an embossed bottle, it looks every bit as impressive as it tastes. And at just $19.99, it continues to deliver some of the most satisfying red wine drinking for the money. No wonder so many customers keep coming back for more!

Made from 100% Primitivo, with a portion of the grapes lightly dried before fermentation to concentrate flavour, this is wonderfully rich and velvety. Ripe black cherries, dark berries, plum and sweet spice mingle with hints of vanilla and chocolate. The palate is plush, rounded and beautifully smooth, with soft tannins and a luscious, lingering finish. There's plenty of flavour here without aggressive tannins or heaviness.

A real crowd pleaser, equally at home with a hearty meal or simply enjoyed on its own. One glass rarely seems enough!
