TASTING NOTES

When it comes to Riesling, few do it better than Pegasus Bay. Internationally acclaimed and masters of this expressive variety, their expertise shines through, even in their entry-level range.

Main Divide Riesling is a long-time favourite of ours, and it’s not hard to see why. This release is bursting with flavour, beautifully balanced, and effortlessly drinkable, it’s the kind of wine you’ll reach for again and again. We call it a comfort wine, reliable, charming, and always satisfying.

Like the rest of the Main Divide range, this bottle seriously overdelivers on quality, flavour, and value.

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)
"Pale straw colour with a shining hue, the nose erupts with mandarin and green apple, evolving into kiwi, kaffir lime and oriental floral notes. Taut and textural, its palate is balanced on a fine fulcrum of acidity and residual sweetness, creating wonderful harmony and length. The mouthfeel swells then aligns with structural precision, echoing towards an exuberant, citrus laden finish."

Rated Excellent & 93/100 Cameron Douglas MS, November 2026 (2025 Vintage)
"Ripe and enticing with an aromatic bouquet of fresh lime and green apple, there's a makrut leaf and white rose suggestion, them lemon and sherbet. As the wine touches the palate there's a light CO2 tickle immersed in the acid line delivering a lively, plush and fruity wine. Balanced and well made with best drinking from day of purchase through 2031+."
