TASTING NOTES

15 Minute Bottles is a collaboration between two families, David Collins and Lana Kennett, and Tom Lascelles and Anne Kirsch. The project came about in Europe, when their paths crossed while Tom was working for Austrian, natural wine superstar, Claus Preisinger. With both couples coming back to New Zealand in 2021, they saw an opportunity to produce here the style of energetic, approachable natural wines they'd loved in Europe. With one family based in Canterbury, and the other in Central Otago, their intention is to produce multi-regional wines that are unfined, unfiltered with minimal added sulphites. David best explains the reason behind their name, 15 Minute Bottles -

"It's rooted in the fun, energetic, thought provoking wine we fell for while in Europe. When we drank a banger, we would call it a '15 minute bottle' because it didn't hang around for long (enjoyed responsibly with a large group of friends of course)."

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)
"Our fourth iteration of the Central Otago pinot under the Test Pots range. Certified organic fruit from the Pisa Range. A light bodied and elegant expression of Central Otago Pinot. 70% whole bunch, 2 weeks on skins, finished ferment in tank before racked to neutral oak. This evolution balances whole bunch and destemmed fruit, increasing the richness in the mid-palate. Crunchy, energetic, yet composed. Unfined and unfiltered."
