TASTING NOTES

Note: This is a different wine from the 2023 Mystery Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc we've previously advertised, but it's every bit as impressive an offering!

It's no secret that Marlborough wineries are facing oversupply issues, and as such we are seeing some sharp offers hit the market. Whilst many of these 'deals' are at the bulk, mass-produced end of the market, this wine is not one of those!

In fact, we would go as far as to say that this wine sits near the top of the tree when it comes to premium Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc, and indeed, under its original label, was priced accordingly.

Of course, under this Mystery offering we can't disclose the identity, other than to say we expect you will be very happy when all is revealed.

We can't tell you where it's from.

We can't reveal who made it.

But we can tell you this - it's received 5 stars and high scores from some top wine critics.

Bursting with tropical fruit, citrus zest, floral passionfruit and a salty, refreshing finish, this 2023 Mystery Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc has serious pedigree. A touch of oak adds palate weight and texture, while the vibrant acidity keeps it crisp and lively. It's layered, complex, and incredibly drinkable.

And the best part? It's just $14.99.

Only the label is hidden. The quality is unmistakable.

95/100 Shanteh Wale, James Halliday's Wine Companion (2023 Vintage)

"The palate is weighted with ripe passionfruit, nectarine and honeysuckle. This is ripe and rich. It's densely packed and acidity trots in line, enabling a long, slippery finish. Lots of value here, for the price tag, and a memorable wine."

Rated Excellent & 94/100 Cameron Douglas MS (2023 Vintage)

"A delicious expression of SB with a just satin touch on the palate before the acidity, fresh herbs and core fruits flavours kick-in. Grapefruit and crisp apple, fresh basil and sage, a refreshing wet-stone mineral seam. Delicious, fresh, salivating and dry."

5 Stars & 94/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, May 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"A splendidly flavoursome palate offering terrific power and persistency. The textural feel is seductive and enticing, yet it retains exuberance and vibrancy. It is mouth-watering and delicious. At its best: now to 2030."

93/100 Stephen Wong MW, The Real Review (2023 Vintage)

"Bright and fruity, a lovely long line of acidity on the palate with a sustained, evolving finish which flits between mineral, ripe red fruit and wild strawberry stalks. Very interesting, carefully made, and with a clearly good fruit which is an elevated version of Sauvignon. Light, crisp, dry and interesting. More of this please!"
