TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"Sparkling pinot noir made using the ancestral method (pet-nat). Fresh and elegant. Flint, strawberries & cream and fresh-baked sourdough notes. Disgorged for clarity and precision."

Reviews for the 2022 vintage below...

93/100 David Walker Bell, September 2023 (2022 Vintage)

"Labelled as 'Ancestral Method' - I'd call it a Pet-Nat - is made from hand-picked Abel-clone Pinot Noir, grown at Churton vineyards in Marlborough. The wines fermented with wild yeast, and no additions, fining or filtering. A smooth spritz of bubbles and an elegant nose of sourdough and toasted brioche that's also brimming with ripe fruit aromas - apricot, strawberry, orange peel and sweet lemons. There is a sheen of natural wine about this, but the skins-y note just sheathes the palate, adding complexity to what is a seriously well-made wine. A creaminess in the texture goes well with the flinty acidity, giving a real energy through to the finish."
