TASTING NOTES

After spending a decade making wine in the Cahors region of South-West France, as well as collectively working forty plus vintages across nine different countries; Simon and Lauren have returned back to New Zealand to make wine under their own label 'A Thousand Gods'. Their aim is to make wines they can call their own, both representative of site, yet in their own way, surprisingly unique.

Working closely with their biodynamic grower in the Waihopai Valley of Marlborough, meticulously farmed grapes are hand-picked and undergo wild fermentation. No additions, fining or filtration processes are used. Instead, thoughtful guidance into becoming wines that are generous and approachable, yet also complex and cellar-worthy.

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)

"Beautiful, sensual pinot loaded with dark forest fruits, roses and violets. There's concentration and character but also a deceptive delicacy and feather-weight elegance... Unfined, unfiltered, no added sulphites..."

Our name is inspired by an expression in Occitan 'miladiou' (mille-dieux in French). Occitan was the language spoken in the south of France prior to French, and certain dialects of Occitan can still be heard in rural areas of southern France today, although the language is gradually dying out. "Miladiou!" is an exclamation of surprise that can be used in a myriad of situations and an English equivalent would be Blimey! or Holy Cow! but it literally translates as "A Thousand Gods!"

(2023 Vintage)

"A stunningly complex and detailed pinot noir from Rising Stars of the Year 2025, this is made from biodynamic Churton Vineyard fruit. The Flōs is a triumph in the more challenging 2023 vintage, delivering a combination of the site's typically darker fruit, with the intricate floral and mineral complexity which holds its lightly reductive style very smartly. Give this 'zero zero' wine (meaning no sulfites were added) some air in the glass and it will really blossom.

Light ruby. A juicy nose of wild strawberry, raspberry and crunchy cranberry inhabits a frame of bay leaf, cassia bark and tonka bean. Revealing more depth as each layer unfolds, it moves through the registers from flowers and fruit to earth and spice. The palate is elegantly light-bodied and finely etched with powdery tannins but soaked in flavour. Fresh, mouth-watering acidity creates an energetic flow across defined, chalky tannins. The very long flavours teeter on the edge of savoury funk before it regains composure, landing back on florals and fruit. Poised, delicate and intricate pinot noir with crystalline fruit. This is hard to resist now but will deliver even more complexity with a few years in bottle."
