TASTING NOTES

Dry northern Italian white from the deliciously different Gruner Veltliner grape variety, the most iconic white grape and wine from Austria, which is just over the border from the Abbazia di Novella winery. This is the oldest winery in Italy and makes outstanding dry wines, white and red.

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"From vineyards nestled in the Alps at an elevation of over 2,000 feet above sea level comes this beautifully fresh and vibrant Grüner Veltliner. From the glass leaps notes of crunchy orchard fruits and both the blossom and zest of citrus. On the palate you'll find much of the same, along with a hint of pea shoots and a taut spine of gravelly minerality."

91/100 James Suckling (2022 Vintage)

"Fresh and mineral gruner with notes of lemon peel, green apples, jasmine and wet stones. It's clean and clear, with excellent texture too. Medium-bodied. Why wait? Drink now."
