TASTING NOTES

This 140 year old winery only makes rose so all their focus and dedication in the vineyard and winery goes into this outstanding rosé. From a classic blend of Grenache, Syrah and Cinsault.

Refreshingly pale, dry and light - this is quintessential Provence Rosé from a lovely vintage for this style. The beautiful thing is not only the delicate fruit and refreshing acidity but the weighty, balanced palate. In other words it is deceptively sophisticated wine – for anyone, that is, who is not satisfied with it being merely gorgeous to drink.

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)

"Pale and luminous, this rosé opens with delicate aromas of white peach, citrus zest, and a hint of wildflowers. The palate is fresh and crisp, revealing subtle red-fruit notes that add just the right touch of vibrancy. Its clean, lightly saline finish brings remarkable precision and lift. A refreshing, elegant wine that captures the brightness and finesse of Provence. AIX Rosé continues to be a refined companion to both festive occasions and elevated gastronomy. With its balance, minerality, and vibrant acidity, the 2025 vintage enhances every table from relaxed coastal lunches to elegant evening dining."

on the nose. The palate delivers brilliant focus and drive, wonderfully framed by beautifully pitched acidity, finishing mouth-watering and persistent. At its best: now to 2027."

92/100 Cameron Douglas MS, June 2025 (2024 Vintage)

"Another classic and enticing expression from the AIX stable. Fresh red apple and yellow plum scents laced with a granitic minerality and peach. It's also floral and delicate. Crisp and dry, salivating and tense, flavours mirror the bouquet with peach and plum then citrus and floral contrasts. Balanced and well made, dry on the finish with fine tannins for added texture. Best drinking from day of purchase through end of summer 2027."
