TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (NV)

"Strict 'Methode Traditionnelle' aged for minimum 18 months on lees. A Pinot Noir dominant blend with chardonnay; fruit is taken from across our six vineyard sites, ensuring complexity in the base wine. Lifted florals, citrus and stonefruit perfume, with freshly baked baguette. Palate is zesty and crisp, with fresh yeast notes and fine persistent bead. Lovely length and mouth filling texture balanced with bright acidity. The perfect aperitif."

4 Stars Cuisine Sparkling Tasting, October 2022 (NV)

"Pale colour with aromas of melon and lemon sorbet on the nose. The palate is fresh and clean and boasts a fantastic acid spine with the creaminess of lemon sorbet seen on the nose reflected through the palate. Has a vibrant and toasty finish. "

4 Stars Michael Cooper, 2020 Edition (NV)

"Designed as an apéritif style, it is estate-grown at Bannockburn and disgorged after at least 18 months on its yeast lees. It is typically vivacious and smooth, with a fragrant, yeasty bouquet, citrusy, slightly appley and biscuity flavours, showing good complexity, and a crisp, harmonious finish."
