TASTING NOTES

Alamos wines come from the highly respected Catena family of Argentina. Full flavoured with loads of dark fruits, hints of chocolate and a smattering of spice. Rich and soft yet still showing plenty of power, this is a good mouthful of Malbec.

Winery Notes (2023 Vintage)

"Alamos crafts quality wines from Argentina, offering the best of Mendoza's high altitude vineyards at an incredible value. Alamos grapes are grown at the foothills of the Andes Mountains at elevations of 3,000 to 5,000 feet, where intense sunlight, cool evening temperatures and mineral-rich irrigation from mountain snowmelt translate to rich wines with intense flavor characteristics.

Alamos Malbec displays a deep purple colour with violet hues. Its aroma is reminiscent of intense red fruits with subtle floral notes. On the palate, it offers remarkable concentration, with flavours of raspberries and a hint of chocolate, accompanied by sweet spices from oak aging. The wine features sweet, silky tannins and a long-lasting finish."
