TASTING NOTES

Since 1989, the brothers Maurice and Jacky Bartholome have been running Domaine Albert Mann, making exceptional wines every vintage!

Their philosophy is to respect the soil where the grapes grow and allow the unique characters of each vineyard and variety to be expressed in the final wine. They started biodynamic winemaking in 1997 in three Grands Crus plots and since 2000, their wines have been certified organic farming by Ecocert. They are at the forefront of quality wine production in Alsace.

The Barthelme brothers, supported by their wives Marie-Claire and Marie-Thérèse, have been awarded Winemaker of the Year 2012 for their talent and dedication, by the Revue des Vins de France.

The nose it is appealingly clean and aromatic with pure lemon citrus aromas, with hints of red apple and pear. Dry and fine in the mouth this organic Riesling reveals more citrus notes (grapefruit, lime and a hint of pearskin), taut and mineral with a long, crisp and refreshing finish and a spicy undertone.
