TASTING NOTES

Another one for you label lovers! El Marciano Garnacha from Alfredo Maestro is a Natural Wine made with organic fruit and zero added sulphites. Like all of Alfredo's wines, it's slightly rustic, but very fruity, lively and a fun bottle of authentic Garnacha.

So called "The Martian" as the high-altitude vineyards used for this wine are located in a hotspot for UFO sightings, rather than for being an odd duck. In fact, it's a beautifully made and well-balanced iteration of Garnacha, exhibiting cherry, red currant and rosemary. Try it and transport yourself out of this world.

Alfredo Maestro began to make wine in the late 1990's when he planted his first vineyard, Almate, near his native town of Penafiel in the Ribera del Duero. From the beginning everything was carried out strictly according to organic principles, but in 2003 Alfredo began to make natural wines containing absolutely no chemicals or added sulphites. Over the years the estate has grown to its current size of 9 hectares with the purchase of a number of abandoned or neglected vineyards around the Ribera del Duero. Now he is known as 'The Magician of the Duero' and is currently acknowledged as one of the most innovative and dynamic natural winemakers in Spain.
