TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"A fruit salad of a wine! Passionfruit with white peach, apricot & a light smokiness. A saline & refreshing acid profile with supple texture.

When I found out there was some Albariño available from the Two Terraces vineyard I was so excited to work with such a refreshing and versatile variety! Already familiar with the quality of the fruit grown by Ian and Linda Quinn, as well as the care and attention to soil health, I did not hesitate to jump at the opportunity.

The whole bunches were hand harvested, de-stemmed and macerated on the skins for two weeks time. A very light daily hand plunge and the addition of my active vineyard starter yeast which fermented underneath the vines. Biodynamic preparations 500, CPP were applied to the soil through out the year, as well as silica quartz (501) to the canopy. After fermentation was complete the free run juice Albariño was pressed into a large spherical and small Tinajas for ageing on its lees."
