TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)

"For those looking for a lighter style of red wine, this Gamay Noir is soft on the palate, with fresh strawberries, sweet spices, redcurrants, bramble and small fine tannins. The wine is fresh and delicate from its time spent in contact with the clay amphora.

This Gamay Noir is from the exceptional Two Terraces vineyard in the Mangatahi Terraces, Hawke's Bay. Ian and Linda Quinn are conscientious and detail oriented growers with the quality of their grapes being exceptional. I drew inspiration from my time working in Beaujolais, vinifying with carbonic maceration (whole grape bunches, no juice) whilst the remaining fruit was de-stemmed and untouched during fermentation. The wine was pressed off into a Tinaja (amphora) for ageing. No additions at any stage. The wine is unfiltered and unfined."
