TASTING NOTES

Arc du Rhône is named after the classified group of villages which together line up to form a geographical arc across the valley of the southern Rhône known locally as the 'arc of gold'. The village of Cairanne at the western tip of this arc of gold.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"Carefully assembled by our winemaker, this wine is made from grapes grown on a terroir of clay and pebbles. The grapes are hand-picked before being carefully de-stemmed and vinified using traditional 'minimal intervention' techniques. This wine is made without the use of oak to retain the pure fresh fruit character.

Attractive and juicy Côtes du Rhône with bramble and blackcurrant fruit notes and delicate floral hints. The palate is up-front, voluptuously fresh with warm spice and structure."
