TASTING NOTES

Rated Outstanding & 95/100 Cameron Douglas MS, August 2025 (2024 Vintage)

"Super bright, a very pale light straw appearance with a silver polish. On the nose and palate, taut and new, vibrant and still youthfully shy. That said there's no mistaking the variety with its red and yellow apple core framed by a waxy mineral seam and fine lees. Honeysuckle and a hint of white spice deliver breadth and complexity. Taut and very new on the palate with a squeeze of energy and urgency. Fruit and lees ideas return almost immediately with a backbone of acidity, lots of length and promise. Day 1, 94 Points. Day 2, now the wine is relaxing and revealing more complexity in the bouquet with more floral and mineral qualities, the texture remains fresh and taut, the length on the finish has increased. Days 3 and 4 - fantastic, a wine that shows its potential for ageing with complexity, varietal flavours are persistent and youthful yet showing where the sweet spot for drinking might be -at between 3 to 5 years then continue to develop as it ages. Day 4, 95 Points."
