TASTING NOTES

Double Gold Medal - New Zealand International Wine Show 2023

We came across this wine recently and it impressed us. Produced by Louis Vavasour, whose family pioneered grape growing in the Awatere Valley.

From an excellent vintage with just enough age to soften the edges, this is excellent drinking at present. It was given the full treatment - gentle press, fermented and aged in quality oak. There is a lot to like and impressed the judges at the NZIWS with all unanimous in giving it a Gold medal (hence the Double Gold)

Winery notes (2020 Vintage)

"Cashew, rock melon, satsuma and toasty oak flavours. Balanced acidity with a lingering finish. This wine has a silky texture that glides across the palate. There is concentration and complexity in this wine that will reward cellaring."
