TASTING NOTES

A new addition to our Prosecco range and one we are very pleased to introduce.

If you've ever wondered what Bacio Della Luna, a "kiss of the moon," tastes like — here is a bubbly for you. Made from Glera (Prosecco) grapes which are living their best life in the rich, ancient soils of a little slice of Italian heaven called Treviso, a region that reportedly created tiramisu. The winery is located in Vidor, which is in the heart of the Prosecco Superiore vineyards which were recently registered as a Unesco World Heritage site.

Delicacy and intensity, glamour and freshness: these are the defining notes of Bacio della Luna wines. So many reasons to love this sparkling wine, including: it's easy to drink and the price is right!

Winery notes
