TASTING NOTES

Produced in Chianti from the oldest estate which was established in 1141, from predominantly Sangiovese grapes with some complementary varieties also. Ricasoli is the most representative wine producer in the Chianti Classico area. With its gentle hills, velvety valleys and thick woodlands of oaks and chestnuts, the 1,200 hectares of the property include almost 240 hectares of vineyards and 26 of olive groves

Brilliant ruby red with hints of violet and cherries. Lovely fragrances of ripe fruit and menthol hints invade the nose. Round, pleasant & well-balanced with nice freshness on the mouth. Easy to drink with a lingering finish.
