TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal - Hawkes Bay Wine Awards 2025

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)

"The Beach House Merlot Cabernet Franc blend is a brand new wine in our portfolio. This vintage we trialed adding some Cabernet Franc to our Merlot and low and behold! A new wine was born. The fruit was hand-picked, de-stemmed and fermented separately in small open-topped vats where they were gently hand plunged and pumped over to aid in extracting the maximum amount of flavour and colour from the berries. The wine spent 11 months in fine French oak.

The Merlot Franc screams black forest cake with loads of dense plums and chocolate. Soft and plush across the palate but with plenty of weight and length, this will pair perfectly with slow-cooked beef cheeks. Will drink nicely well into the 2020s."

91/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, October 2025 (2024 Vintage)

"Sweetly fruited and inviting with aromas of dark plum, wild strawberry, thyme, and nutmeg on the nose. The palate delivers juicy fruit flavours with silky texture and polished tannins, finishing lingering and pleasingly dry. At its best: now to 2030."
