TASTING NOTES

A new addition to our range of super friendly, great value European red wines. We are totally impressed by the value on offer here. It is not often we come across a deliciously drinkable Crianza (oak aged) Rioja at this price point.

Oak aged (12 months) Rioja from the long established, highly-awarded Bodegas Bilbaínas, based in Haro, Rioja Alta. A blend of Garnacha & Tempranillo grapes, this is a textbook version of Spain's most familiar red. Aromas of ripe red fruits and balsamic notes with supple hints of vanilla, coconut and cocoa. It tastes fresh and lithe with moderate tannins.

Winery notes

"Mostly made from Tempranillo with a little freshness of Garnacha. Fresh and fruity, respecting the personality of the grape while refining it with the toasty and spicy notes provided by its aging to the oak during 12 months. It was drunk on a daily basis in the Royal Palace during the reign of Alfonso XIII and the reason Bodegas Bilbaínas was awarded the title of Suppliers of the Royal Household and Heritage; Royal Order of 7 April 1925."
