Distillery notes
"Distilled 19,000km away from London, Bluff Gin is nevertheless our expression of a classical London Dry Gin. The bottle in your hand, however, is anything but classic.

It pays homage to the glass buoys that would keep afloat the illegal Japanese whaling nets, set across our protected Southern Seas. Bluffies, as the locals are known, would set sail and brave Hell's Gate, an infamous strait of open sea to lop off these buoys, letting the nets sink into the deep blue.

hose who made it back, proudly displayed the buoys on their masts, front doors and at their local pub. A warning sign that's still present to this day, a warning sign to never mess with Bluff.

One sip of Bluff Gin and you'll feel as if you're there at the very bottom of the world looking out over Foveaux Strait. Drop by some time. You'll see for yourself why they risked their lives to protect this incredible place.

Botanicals: Juniper, coriander, orris root, licorice root, lemon grass and Hibiscus flower."

Sarah Miller, drinksbiz Magazine, October/November 2024
"This new release on the New Zealand gin scene has made a splash already, winning Best Dry Gin and Best in Show at the Australian Gin Awards in September. Created to capture the spirit of its home in Bluff, the gin is a classic, smooth London Dry style with hibiscus flower and lemongrass in the botanical mix. It has bright juniper flavours matched with citrus, liquorice and spice. The distinctive glass buoy bottle evokes its coastal Southland home."
