TASTING NOTES

One of the most consumed brands in Argentina, Toro Centenario Cabernet Sauvignon has a bright ruby colour with violet reflections. It boasts complex aromas of red fruits and spices such as cassis and black pepper, with subtle hints of coffee from the oak. On the palate, it is balanced, with excellent structure, soft tannins, and great persistence. Pairs well with cheeses, pastas, risottos, and meats in general.

Is it the greatest Cabernet you'll ever drink? Of course not. But at $11.99, it has absolutely no right to be this good. A complete no-brainer at this price.
