TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal - Gilbert & Gaillard International Challenge 2023

Do you want a quaffable, easy to drink Malbec at a very affordable price? Toro is one of Argentina's oldest wineries and well known for their 'value' wines. Dark violet in colour and bursting with inky fresh blackberry and mulberry fruit aromas and a hint of savoury soy, this vivacious and youthful Malbec from Mendoza is velvety smooth in the mouth with lashings of dark fruit and tinges of raspberry and plum.

88/100 Natalie Maclean Wine Reviews, August 2020 (2019 Vintage)

"An incredible value for this full-bodied, supple Argentine red wine made from the country's classic Malbec grape. This is the most popular Malbec in Argentina, which is quite a feat given that's their speciality. Aromas of dark plums, berries and smoke. Pair with grilled meats."
