TASTING NOTES

As a reward to the New Zealand market for the success of the Bogle label here, the winery has made this special 'reserve style' wine available at a very special price. It is a good step up from everyone's staple with all those oaky buttery characters amplified big time!

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"This vintage's Phantom Chardonnay, aged for 16 months sur lie in American and French oak barrels, emerges with a golden hue and an eerie bouquet of ripe pear, vanilla and hazelnut. On the palate, it unveils notes of baked apple, creamy butterscotch and a touch of spice, all balanced by a chilling acidity and refined texture. The finish is long and layered, casting a lingering impression of well-integrated oak that continues to haunt the senses. Sur lie aged for 10 months in 65% new American oak and 35% new French oak with lees stirring twice a month."
