TASTING NOTES

This wee Italian number has picked up a few fans here amongst the staff since it arrived. It's a delightfully refreshing white wine from the hillside Tuscan town of San Gimignano which is well known for the medieval streetscapes and towers that dominate its skyline. The wine dry and crisp with a lovely salty tang through the finish.

"Made from the Vernaccia grape, produced in and around the Italian town of San Gimignano in Tuscany. Since the Renaissance, it has been considered one of Italy's finest white wines. It was the first Italian wine to be awarded Denominazione di Origine Controllata (DOC) status in 1966. This is a dry white wine with yellow apple, green pear, lemon, almond flavours with a light saline character."
