TASTING NOTES

A small-batch gin that's made following a traditional family recipe, combining four high-quality botanicals. Shows intense aromas of juniper and citrus with floral notes. The palate is dry and robust, with deep, balanced flavours of spice and lime on a long smooth finish. Serve chilled on its own on in a classic gin cocktail.

Created as an homage to the ancestors and their knowledge of a unique blend of hand-selected botanicals. Innovating through taste, each distillation results in a singular and unique style of small batch gin.
