TASTING NOTES

A delightful red Burgundy from a special site in Monthelie, where vineyards date back to the 9th century. The Premier Cru of Les Duresses lies on a 1.8 hectare slope that has sunny south exposure, and yet the slow ripening here makes it one of the last sites to be harvested. This combination of factors produces rich wines of very expressive brightness and depth.

93/100 James Suckling (2022 Vintage)
"I love the nose of red roses and red fruits of this excellent Monthelie. Way more graceful than the reputation of this appellation leads you to expect. Also good concentration, the velvety tannins building very nicely at the long finish. From two plots in this appellation. Drink or hold."

16/20 Julia Harding MW, JancisRobinson.com (2022 Vintage)
"Cask sample. Lightish cherry red. Open raspberry fruit, inviting. Gentle tannic grip, easy, delicious, fruit-centred but not flippant. Approachable soon. (JH)."
