TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2021 Vintage)

"Our Jack Harrison Shiraz is named after our grandson, Jack, who looks after our viticulture, winery and bottling plant. Jack is strong-minded, mature, and continues to exceed expectations – much like this wine.

From our vineyard in Eden Valley, to your door in the Barossa, we are delighted to bring you our 2021 Jack Harrison, with its inviting deep bouquet filled with layers of dark fruit, including luxurious black currants, ripe plums and succulent black cherries. French oak nurturing the textural structure. Extremely luscious ripe fruits and subtle hints of spices result in a harmonious fusion and depth of flavours across the entire palate, thanks to a well-balanced structure featuring ripe tannins and refreshing acidity to keep everything feeling elegant and well rounded."

5 Stars & 96/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, October 2025 (2021 Vintage)

"Gorgeously fruited and seductively complex, the wine showcases blackberry, star anise, liquorice, cedar, and dark chocolate characters on the nose. The concentrated palate exhibits terrific depth and flow, beautifully framed by plush texture and tannins that meld harmoniously. Sumptuous and structured, making it hugely appealing. At its best: now to 2040."
