TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)

"We're Lauren and Jim! We've collectively worked across the beer, wine, hop, and malt industries for 10+ years and have now landed in the rich fruit basket that is Nelson, Aotearoa New Zealand. We farm our own organic vineyard with biodynamic practices and make minimal intervention wine.

From the Weka vineyard, this Chardonnay is dry farmed and organically grown on dense, golden Moutere clay soils. Whole bunch pressed to large format French oak barrels, it underwent wild fermentation with regular bâtonnage and was aged on fine lees for a year before bottling. Unfined and unfiltered, with sulphur added only at bottling.

A medium to full bodied Chardonnay with balanced acidity and texture, it leans slightly oxidative in style, supported by a powerful phenolic structure. Aromas of fresh pastry, hazelnut, yellow flowers, apricot cream and lemon oil lead into a saline, contemplative, deeply textural palate that speaks clearly of Nelson's cool climate and dense clay soils."
