TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Complex with dark cherry notes, violets and bright florals complimenting earthy, flint mineral tones and darker savoury character. Layered on the palate, this wine has a wonderful suppleness and depth of interest with expressive fruit and fine sinewy tannins. The palate shows length and concentration, and while delicious now, there is a definite promise of more with time. Cellaring potential 10-12 years."

95/100 Erin Larkin, RobertParker.com, Wine Advocate, February 2025 (2022 Vintage)

"The 2022 Burn Cottage Vineyard Pinot Noir is light and fine, with a delicate array of cherry, strawberry, red apple and freshly pressed linen notes. Woven throughout is sweet tobacco, graphite, white tea and finely ground pink peppercorns. In the mouth, the acidity works with the tannins to penetrate the palate with flavor, and it has an ethereal quality to it, which marks it as distinctly different from the Sauvage Pinot Noir. This is an eminently pretty Pinot Noir and comes highly recommended."

95/100 James Suckling (2022 Vintage)

"Perfumed and fragrant aromas of dark cherries, blackberry bushes, spices, wet bark and rose petals. The palate is medium-bodied with firmly integrated tannins and bright acidity, giving notes of redcurrants, wild raspberries, citrus peel and lead pencil. Refined and pure with an underlying power and tension"

Rated Excellent & 94/100 Cameron Douglas MS, April 2026 (2022 Vintage)

"An excellent bouquet of complexity and detail, a natural voice of site and soil flow through the scents of red apple and cherry, raspberry and wood spices, lees and cinnamon, clove and vanilla. A dry wine with medium weight, a core of mineral and baking spices, a wine of texture and complexity, mouthfeel and finesse. Floral and fine with chalky tannins and medium+ acid line. Best drinking from day of purchase through 2034+."
