TASTING NOTES

Don't let the discombobulating name worry you because as soon as you sip this wonderful Italian white, all will be right with the world. Crafted from 100% Turbiana (a rare, indigenous white grape also known as verdicchio) grown around the Lake Garda area of Veneto, this is stunningly aromatic, all apricot stone, nectarine and quince, followed by ultra-zesty acidity, a beautifully balanced, succulent mouthfeel and a long, peachy finish.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"Consumed young it is fresh and straightforward, refined and elegant with delicate notes of white flowers and aromatic herbs with a hint of apricot and almond. It evolves through time firmly expressing mineral notes. The wine acquires complexity with a touch of iodine, spices and candle fruit. On the palate it is concentrated, with a lively fresh finish."

89/100 Kerin O'Keefe, Wine Enthusiast, September 2022 (2021 Vintage)

"Aromas of dried botanical herb, white spring flower and a whiff of green melon. On the rounded palate, tangy acidity accompanies pineapple, candied lemon drop and ripe yellow peach."
