TASTING NOTES

Ca' Di Rajo is a family owned winery founded in 1961, They have some of the best property in and around the town of Valdobbiadene.

The nose is pretty and delicate, peach dominates, then spring flowers, lemon/lime, green apple and a hint of bakery bread. This is a flavourful Prosecco, creamy lemon, tart apple, grapefruit, a slap of minerality, buttered bread, and tart, slightly sour cherry. The acidity is well-balanced and holds the body of the wine together, giving it greater length than you would expect from most Prosecco.
