TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2019 Vintage)

"Medium bodied yet delicate style of Shiraz. Violets and bramble on the nose and a palate lush with dark berry fruits. A delicious wine to drink young for its primary fruit characters. The wine will gain complexity and smoothness with cellaring 5 to 8 years."

91/100 Angus Hughson, winepilot.com, April 2021 (2019 Vintage)

"Shiraz from the Great Southern is slowly starting to make a name for itself with the region's icy climate increasingly seen as home for more elegant styles. This example from Mount Barker has great character with plenty of fruit complexity. Bright and vibrant fruit aromas of fruit pastilles are lifted by ground spice, cloves and earth with a touch of violets also in the mix. The palate is then fleshy and juicy - generous dark fruits are supported by supple tannins with a nice acid bite to finish. A good introduction to Mount Barker Shiraz with the richness and weight to match up well with lasagne."
