Despite the name, this Caravan has never been one to follow — it leads the charge, and has built a loyal following in the process. Ever popular in-store, it delivers far more than its modest price suggests, with deep dark fruit, plush berry compote flavours, and a satisfyingly dry, spicy finish. If you're opening one, make it two... because the first won't last long.

It's time to jump on the Caravan.

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Sometimes, the most wonderful creations emerge from random, happy hybrids. Take the cross-pollination of Peloursin and Syrah vines which French botanist Francois Durif discovered. He produced a delicious new grape variety, worthy of his own name: Durif, also known as Petite Sirah. And there begins your journey of discovery: taste the full-bodied, generous and lively flavours, like blackcurrant and plums balanced with spicy toasted integrated oak.

Intense red with purple hues. Intense youthful fresh ripe berry fruit flavours with some well integrated vanillin oak . Full bodied dense ripe berry fruit flavours balanced with vanillin oak but yet long and smooth. Serve with a red wine casserole or a juicy steak with red onion jam. This wine has the flavour, structure and balance to be enjoyed now or offers added satisfaction
