TASTING NOTES

From its colourful label to the juicy dark wine inside the bottle, we are impressed.

Viña Casa Viva was founded in 1993 in Chile's Casablanca Valley. From its beginning, Viña Casa Viva has focused on the production and sale of premium wines, estate-grown and bottled on its own land in the Casablanca Valley.

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"The Chilean port town of Valparaiso is home to some of Chile's most vibrant architecture and for this reason has, since 1993, been classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Celebrating Valparaiso's unique spirit, Casa Viva or "Living House" is sourced from the neighbouring Casablanca Valley, Chile's first and foremost coastal cool climate wine growing region.

Intense red in colour with purple hues. On the nose, aromas that unveil notes of raspberries, ripe bell peppers, dried plums and sweet tobacco. Silky mouthfeel, moderate acidity and well integrated tannins that lend a medium-long finish."
