TASTING NOTES

96/100 Luca Maroni - Leading Italian Wine Critic

Vinified in the heart of the Langhe and Monferrato from 90% Chardonnay and 10% Arneis, this wine shows elegant floral notes on the nose. The 150+1 is reference to the collaboration between head winemaker Daniele Ressa and the 150 members of the Vallebelbo cooperative where this wine is made. Medium-bodied with soft and well-balanced fruity notes. The palate benefits from two months of lees ageing which adds a touch of creaminess and body.

Best Buy, Jeff Porter, Wine Enthusiast (2022 Vintage)

"A blend of Chardonnay and Arneis, this wine leaps from the glass with tropical fruit aromas followed by notes of pungent white flowers, peach and mixed citrus. The medium-bodied palate is fruit-forward, highlighting stone fruit notes mixed with candied lemon rind and finishing with zippy acidity."
