TASTING NOTES

The domain is located in Northwest Italy, Piedmonte, between Asti and Alba. It covers 26 hectares, including 16 hectares of vineyards. The 3 brothers Daniele, Alessio and Luca work the land tirelessly, always respecting biodiversity and following the natural rhythms of time and the seasons. They make the most of all that nature offers them: from the natural water sources that seep into mineral-rich rocks and the woods that offer rest to birds to the bunches of ripe grapes, ready to be transformed into elegant and exquisite wines.

Brilliant yellow colour, with fresh, minerally aromas evoking notes of white peach, citrus and grapefruit. Striking freshness and a subtle sapidity on the palate. The slight almondy note in the finish is typical of the grape variety.

Best Buy, Jeff Proter, Wine Enthusiast, October 2023 (2022 Vintage)

"Aromas of fresh apples and mixed citrus lead the way for this fine and fresh Arneis. Light and crisp on the palate with apricot, fresh green herbs and almonds on the finish."

Treve Ring, GismondiOnWine.com, October 2023 (2022 Vintage)

"Vengore is a natural amphitheatre of 26 hectares, including meadows, woods, and vineyards. Centering, there is a historic farmstead with Roman steps. This organic arneis comes from a single vineyard within the estate and was native fermented in stainless, where it spent eight months on lees until bottling. Very sleek and refined, with wild pear, quince, tangerine, and
