TASTING NOTES

The Macon is in the Southern part of Burgundy just outside the boundaries of the more prestigious appellations such as Montrachet. The soils here have less limestone and more clay. It is here that you really can find bargains in white Burgundy. This wine is an excellent example of that. "Les Charmes" is the flagship wine for Cave de Lugny and the pride of its winemakers. The harvest comes exclusively from a locality specific to the town of Lugny which is in the form of a 105 ha plateau with mainly clay-limestone. The south / south-east orientation allows it to benefit from optimum sunshine. The average age of the vines is over 40 years.

A refreshing dry white made from Chardonnay grown in the Maconnais region of the southern Burgundy. The grapes come from the historic Les Charmes vineyard, known for producing wines of great elegance and finesse. Ripe stone fruit flavours are beautifully balanced with a lovely mineral finish.
