TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Elijah is a powerhouse showcase of the Eden Valley, a unique combination of elegance and intensity, powerful fruit with structure. My conviction and experience is that a wine that shows balance and dense structure early on will make for an age worthy wine worth cellaring. Elijah's layered tannins and brooding, dense nature will become even more complex with a further five to 10 years in the cellar."

5 Stars 95/100 Aaron Brasher, The Real Review (2022 Vintage)

"Dark red and inky in the glass. Pretty and perfumed aromas of dark cherry, Asian spice, bramble, violets, dried flowers and a bunchy, woody lift. Dark fruited, opulent and mouth-filling. There's lashings of plum, mulberry, dark chocolate and pudding spice. An impressive display of balance, textured tannin, drinkability, drive and length."
