TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"The De Boüard de Laforest family at Angélus has been dedicated to the production of great wines for eight generations. Recently, under the impetus of Stéphanie de Boüard-Rivoal, the President of Angélus, the estate created a new wine called Tempo d'Angélus.

This new addition to the range of wines of Château Angélus, made under the Bordeaux appellation, offers a more streamlined version of its illustrious elders -Angélus, Carillon d'Angélus and N°3 d'Angélus, with which it shares the same depth and complexity while being at the same time more approachable young.

The aim of Tempo d'Angélus is to demystify the approach to great wines, in offering a top quality wine, produced from the great Angélus terroirs and made with the expertise of its teams, at the most affordable price levels. It has been created to provide a window that opens out onto the world of grands crus, which will allow demanding wine enthusiasts to enjoy a wine that is structured, complex and delicious to drink, without having to wait 15 or 20 years, as they often have to for our grands crus.

The wine's aspect is clear and dark. The nose bursts with fresh red berry fruit aromas, tiny berries and cherries, enhanced by subtle notes of oak. A sensation of verticality comes to the fore on the palate with very firm pHs which give the wine great freshness and pure fruit character. The finish is lingering with subtle notes of roasted coffee beans and oak coming through."

(2022 Vintage)

"An affordable, easy-drinking Bordeaux red that still showcases the skill of Angélus. Aromas of cherries, salty stones and purple flowers lead into a palate that is seductive yet fresh, with a touch of chewiness and flesh for texture. A minty undercurrent lifts the finish, keeping it in harmony. Pure, vibrant and effortlessly enjoyable – a brilliant buy that proves Bordeaux can balance ripeness with vibrancy, even in a hot year."

92/100 JamesSuckling.com (2022 Vintage)

"This is fresh and crunchy, with a salty, dark-berry and chocolate character. It's medium-bodied with delicious fruit. 90% merlot and 10% cabernet franc from Cotes de Castillon terroir. It's so attractive now. Why wait?"

90/100 Jeb Dunnuck (2022 Vintage)

"The 2022 Château Angelus Tempo is juicy and lively, with a beautiful, crunchy style in its black cherries, spring flowers, and sappy, leafy tobacco-like nuances. It's beautifully balanced and has integrated acidity and fine tannins. The blend is 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc aged 18 months in barrel."
