TASTING NOTES

Domaine Belingard is one of the smaller producers in the Dordogne Valley of Bordeaux. It takes its name from the Celtic God of the Sun, Belin, whose followers regularly used the area for ritual sacrifices. These days Belin still protects the region and ensures the botrytis bringing mists rise from the Dordogne river giving this wine concentrated sweetness vintage after vintage.

Brilliant pale gold. Expressive nose of candied fruits, acacia honey, vanilla. Full, generous palate with refined texture. Good balance of sweetness and freshness, lingering fragrances. A first-rate effort.
