TASTING NOTES

The wines of Château Cissac are superior, classic wines, which combine the strength of the Médoc and the aromatic elegance of the greatest of the Bordeaux wines. They have a distinctive depth of colour and a subtle balance between aromas of cherry and plums, mingled with liquorice and smoke.

94/100 Decanter, December 2022 (2019 Vintage)

"Suave and intense, delicate and powerful, silky and grained. Dense forest fruits, graphite and fresh pyrazine notes of blackcurrant and tomato leaves. Heady, long and showing plenty of promise."

92/100 Roger Voss, Wine Enthusiast (2019 Vintage)

"Owned by the Vialard family since the 19th century, this estate has produced a firm wine. Plenty of dry tannins underlie the finely textured black fruits. Wood aging has smoothed the fruit and deepened its concentration. Drink from 2026."
