TASTING NOTES

Cahors is home to the malbec variety and whilst Argentina may have taken the limelight in recent years, Malbec is making a real comeback in Cahors after nearly disappearing. Pascal and Jean-Marc Verhaeghe’s Chateau du Cedre is regarded as the region's leading light. This is 95% Malbec, 5% Merlot with fruit grown by local organic producers that Pascal consults to. About 70% is lighter and finer material from the limestone plateau (the causses) and 30% richer and denser fruit from the iron-rich gravelly terraces of the Lot River valley.

Behind its dark, ruby colour and violet hints, the Héritage hides intense smells of cassis, violet and spices. Straightforward on the palate, with pure and clear acidity, wrapped in mellowness. Altogether, this gives a good length to the wine.
