TASTING NOTES

The Chateau Jolys story starts back in the 60s when Pierre-Yves Latrille fell in love with the property in the foothills of the Pyrenees. He undertook to transform this fallow land into the 32 hectare estate it is today, one of the finest of the Jurançon appellation.

In 2012, his granddaughters Camille and Claire joined forces with him, bringing their energy, ideas and projects. Camille is in charge of the business and marketing side of things, while Claire looks after the vineyards and the winemaking.

Located south of Pau, the Jurançon appellation stretches over 1300 ha of vineyards, planted on slopes facing the Pyrenees. With their 32 hectare vineyard and ultra modern vinification cellars, Chateau Jolys is one of the leading producers in the Jurançon appellation.

A shiny golden colour and a delicate nose that seduces with its freshness and intensity, hints of honey, acacia and citrus. On the palate, after a round and fresh attack, is an excellent sugar-alcohol-acidity balance, which makes this wine an elegant and flattering Jurançon, very easy to drink.
