TASTING NOTES

A super-value red blend from a Cru Bourgeois estate in Bordeaux. The Chateau La Chandelliere hails from under-valued terroir in the Medoc, where the Cabernet-rich plantings produce a deeply structured and satisfying red for the price. A classic Bordeaux with food-friendly depth and structure, drink now or lay down a while.

90/100 Georgina Hindle, Decanter, January 2026 (2019 Vintage)

"Quite a perfumed, lifted nose here with rose and red cherry aromas. Dense and satisfying on the palate with chalky tannins and a good level of freshness throughout. Nicely presented with clarity and precision. Crunchy fruit, some acidity giving lift and a long finish, although it is still a little drying at the end with tannins taking hold."
