TASTING NOTES

Château Le Vieux Fort is ideally located at the tip of the Médoc in the district of Valeyrac, near the Gironde estuary and Atlantic Ocean. Since 1925, the Bergey family has guided the history of the estate, which today is headed up by the 4th generation.

With its magnificent ruby, crimson-tinged appearance, this wine reveals aromas of macerated fruits with a hint of mint, lifted by roasted notes. Generous and rich on the palate, with relatively firm tannins that will soften over time. A highly characterful, top value Cru Bourgeois.

90/100 Roger Voss, Wine Enthusiast, July 2022 (2019 Vintage)

"This structured wine with juicy black-currant flavours is aging well. It is full of fresh fruits that bring out acidity and a crisp feeling at the end. The wine needs to age further, ready from 2024."
