TASTING NOTES

Winner of Three Gold Medals in France

From the home of incredibly expensive wines, this very modestly priced Bordeaux has become a staple on our shop floor. It has become quite the staff and customer favourite over the last couple of years as it just smashes the quality to price ratio out of the park!

This is not some mass produced wine. It is a family estate that is a member of the VIF (Vignerons Indépendants de France) meaning it is entirely estate grown and produced. Winemaker Frédéric Bellot spent 8 years at the First Growth Chateau Haut-Brion!

Beautiful opaque hue with dark purple tints. Shy nose of cassis, plum, spices and a floral note. Silky attack, generous, ample, robust profile whose density reveals a robust underlying structure. A balanced, distinctive wine with herbal accents. Beautiful. Intense red fruity aroma mixed with woody, spicy notes. The tannins are upright and elegant, lingering long on the palate. Evolves patiently towards undergrowth aromas whilst remaining fresh.
