TASTING NOTES

Chocolate Box Shiraz from Rocland Estate in the Barossa Valley has a huge following. Fantastically packaged with a whimsical retro label, it's what's in the bottle that really gets everybody excited. This is big, bold Barossa Shiraz with rich dark fruit and chocolate flavours, all wrapped up in a decadently round and somewhat fulsome mouthfeel. Completely satisfying.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)
"Deep mulberry red with aromas of plums with hints of black pepper and spicy oak. The palate shows Satsuma plum characters underpinned by dark chocolate and subtle French oak. Soft tannins and a persistent fruit finish."

92/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, August 2025 (2023 Vintage)
"It's immediately appealing on the nose, showing blackberry, warm spice, toasted nut, and mocha characters, followed by a succulent palate that's plump and velvety. Beautifully rounded and smooth with a lengthy, tasty finish. At its best: now to 2030."
