TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal - New Zealand International Wine Show 2022

Winery notes (2017 Vintage)

"2017 was a dry summer so volumes were smaller and much more concentrated. Our luxury release shiraz has beautiful dark plum and cherry flavours with rich dark chocolate and spice on the nose. It has spent 18 months in oak barrels giving the palate a long and persistent finish."

Rated Excellent & 93/100 Cameron Douglas MS, May 2022 (2017 Vintage)

"Classic bouquet of old school Shiraz - enticing aromas of black currant and smoky wood scents, dark plum and dark brown chocolate, some coffee notes and baking spices of clove and vanilla pod. Full-bodied, rich in flavour and texture with medium acidity and plenty of toasty wood attributes. Firmish moderately intense tannins, flavours of baking spices, smoke and brown sugar then dark berries and warming alcohol. Well made and ready to drink from today and through 2025. A crowd pleaser for certain."
